at Trinity College of Music

Vocal music catalogue

The Music Library of the Centre for Young Musicians, created after the abolition of the Inner London Education Authority, comprises music from the ILEA Loan Collections of vocal and instrumental music, to which a large amount of new material has been added. In particular, the vocal music collection has been greatly enriched by a number of generous donations, including the former Linden Singers' and New Barbican Singers' collections of part songs and other music and, more recently, a large number of sets of oratorios and other choral works donated by Essex County Library.

The Library is now owned and managed by Trinity College of Music. Printed lists of vocal, orchestral and band music are available and a similar list of wind chamber music (consisting mainly of the Alan Cave Collection) will be available in the near future. Inquiries should be addressed to Tony Lynes, CYM Music Librarian, Trinity College of Music, King Charles Court, Old Royal Naval College, Greenwich, London, SE10 9JF, or by telephone (020 8305 3952 or 020 7733 7235) or e-mail (tlynes@tcm.ac.uk).

This catalogue is divided into the following sections (the term 'part songs' covers a wide variety of small-scale choral works):

1. Part songs for mixed voices.
2. Part songs for higher voices.
3. Part songs for male voices.
4. Unison songs.
5. Cantatas, oratorios, masses, etc.
6. Operatic works.
7. Miscellaneous (canons, etc.).

Catalogue numbers are shown (in the column headed "Set No.") for works in sections 1-4 and 7, which are shelved numerically in the library. Catalogue numbers of items from the Linden Singers' collection are prefixed by the letter L.
